Join Twin Cities Public Television's (tpt's) loyal circle of donors. The Studio Society is a diverse group of philanthropic individuals and families who are passionate about public broadcasting and enable the station to expand on its ability to educate, entertain and inspire our communities through the power of media.

Studio Society membership begins with a minimum contribution of $1,000 annually – or $100 a month – to strengthen the impact of public television in Minnesota now and for future generations.

Invest in the quality programs you love and help lead the community in supporting a remarkable resource that enriches the lives of 1.5 million viewers each month.

Make a difference in a way that few others do. Join tpt's Studio Society today!

As a member of the Studio Society, you have the satisfaction of providing high-quality media to our community. You will also receive many benefits depending on your level of support.
